2020 TRAVELLERS' CHOICE

The Slate and Black Ginger are honoured to be recognised as TripAdvisor 2020 Travellers' Choice Awards, placing us as the preferred hotel and restaurant in Thailand and Southeast Asia. These awards are particularly coveted in the travel industry as they represent the unbiased opinions of millions of real travellers who share their comments on the TripAdvisor website.

First and foremost, our true gratitude to our valued guests for their loyalty and ongoing support to us all these years, for believing in our mission to bring back Phuket's rich elemental history, industrial heritage, and flavours of Thailand through our resort. All of the inspiring reviews and feedback undoubtedly keep us moving forward and reaffirming the commitment of our resort to delighting guests with warm hospitality. Additionally, this award would not have been possible without our amazing The Slate family and business partners, who have grown together with us since we opened our doors.

To celebrate our 'TripAdvisor 2020 Travellers' Choice Awards' wins and to share with the world our endearment for travel culture, we are giving away a two-night staycation in Pearl Bed Suite that can be redeemed between 16th October and 23rd December 2020. To enter, simply head to our @theslatephuket on Instagram and Facebook.

The Slate is now a recognized and certified member of SHA (Safety & Health Administration) from TAT as one of the hotels within Thailand who has met all government required stipulations for re-opening. These include extensive cleaning and sanitizing measures, social distancing in all areas of the hotel, pre-arrival check-in process, limited-contact food ordering and seating, and much more.

A few notes on the Health, Safety, and Sanitization measures we're standardizing throughout our resort to minimize the risk of Covid-19 when we re-open our doors.
